(This is on top of being a successful, global consulting firm for over 50 years.) We are looking for a Principal / Senior Manager for one of their most prestigious and fastest growing units – Life Sciences.

SO HOW ABOUT YOU?

Please note that you MUST have an outstanding record of achievements when it comes to:

- Generating a minimum of $2 million and more in annual consulting business by selling (consulting) services to F500 Life Sciences & Pharmaceutical companies
- Deep understanding of Value Chain development and customer analytics across the life sciences and customer health sector
- Product positioning and launches; Improving customer acquisition, retention and loyalty
- Closed loop marketing driven by new capabilities in customer centricity and multi-channel integration optimising marketing and sales campaigns
- Digital Marketing transformation and change management
- A national book of business (willingness to travel nationally) and proof of building lasting relationships
- Motivating, inspiring large consulting and project teams
- Likely to have Big 4 consulting experience (as in PWC, E&Y, etc.)
